

NGO COMMITTEE ON THE STATUS OF WOMEN, GENEVA

WOMEN'S RIGHTS ADVOCATES IN INTERNATIONAL GENEVA: THE HEART OF HUMAN RIGHTS AND SERVICE TO HUMANITY

GLOBAL CONSULTATION DAY HELD IN PARALLEL TO CSW65

Sunday 14 March, 2021,
5:30-7:30pm Central European Time

To attend the NGO CSW Geneva Global Consultation Day, registration to the NGO CSW65 Forum is required.

List of performers

"Richtig Wälschland" by Lisa Stoll, Alphorn Soloist produced by Grüezi Music AG, Switzerland

Lisa Stoll is a Swiss alphorn soloist from Wilchingen in the canton of Schaffhausen. Her predilection for musical instruments, especially wind instruments, began at the age of six when Lisa Stoll began playing the recorder. The cornet was added two years later before she turned to the alphorn at the age of ten.

<https://www.lisastoll.ch/>

"A Woman's Place" by Sara Thomsen

Thomsen's soulful voice, poetic lyrics and unforgettable melodies cut to the heart of the human experience. A strong supporter of struggles for human dignity and ecological sustainability, this Minnesotan has released six solo albums. In addition, she is a weaver of song and community, and social engagement is at the heart of her work. Among her many endeavors, Thomsen founded and directs the non-profit Echoes of Peace, to expand and develop the work of examining critical social issues, using music and the arts to build and bridge informed, engaged and caring communities.

<http://www.sarathomsen.com>

"Keep on Moving Forward/Sigamos Adelante"- by Emma's Revolution/Pat Humphries

When the Californian, Pat Humphries submitted her song "Keep on Moving Forward" to the organizers of the Beijing, 4th World Conference on Women, she was unaware that it would become the rallying song of that most important meeting, and now 26 years later, be resurrected for the same cause. Emma's Revolution is the dynamic, award-winning activist duo of Pat Humphries & Sandy O. With beautiful harmonies and genre-defying eclecticism, they deliver the energy and strength of their convictions, writing songs that are tools of inspiration and motivation. The duo's latest CD, Revolution Now, covers issues from reproductive justice, to refugees and Black Lives Matter to the sustaining power of love.

<https://www.emmasrevolution.com>

Laureen Mobo; "Fight Song"

Laureen is a young talent from Germany and is just starting her music studies as a jazz singer. She says, above all else, she absolutely loves and enjoys creating music.

https://youtube.com/channel/UCJuhPs_b730mhjkHbz_xvaQ

Sarah Laederich; Human Brigade; - "Work It Out"

Sarah, who is from Paris France, is a song-writer, singer who composes and arranges her own electro pop style which often focuses on feminist themes. She also uses her talents as a music therapist, working with women and children.

<http://www.youtube.com/humanbrigade>

Robin and Julia Goldsby; "Maybe It's You"

This is an impressive mother daughter duo, who performed for Beijing+20 NGO CSW Forum at the UN, Geneva. The multi-talented Robin Meloy Goldsby, pianist, Steinway Artist, and author is well known for her powerful and emotional music. <https://robin.goldsby.de>

Julia Meloy Goldsby is a freelance visual artist working in Cologne, Germany. She's an illustrator, photographer and an award-winning documentary filmmaker.

<https://www.juliameloygoldsby.com>