

Becoming a Member

The NGO Committee on the Status of Women Geneva (NGO CSW Geneva) welcomes new members and any form of support or participation!

The NGO CSW Geneva brings representatives from NGOs in consultative relationship with the UN together to share information, coordinate NGO participation at various UN meetings and bring their expertise to jointly work on substantive projects, such as joint statements, the organization of panel events and others advocacy activities around Women's Rights and Gender Equality.

According to its bylaws the purposes of the Committee are:

- a) to engage with the UN system to raise awareness on issues relating to the status of women;
- b) to influence global policy and monitor the implementation of existing commitments;
- c) to maintain a global momentum for gender equality through advocacy and strategic lobbying;
- d) to exchange information among Committee Members' Organizations and provide a platform for strategizing;
- e) to bring diverse voices from local and national levels to international platforms;
- f) to draw on the experience of Committee Members to share analysis on trends, needs and good practices.

Additionally, Individuals or organizations who work in support of our purposes but don't have UN ECOSOC status may apply for Associate Membership. These members do not have voting rights.

Business meetings are held regularly. All members receive notices of meetings, events and information updates per Email.
