

MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

The NGO Committee on the Status of Women Geneva welcomes new, qualifying members.

Active Members are Non-Governmental Organizations in consultative status with the Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC) of the United Nations committed to actively supporting the goals and mission of the Committee. All actions and initiatives of the Committee shall be in line with internationally agreed women- related principles and human rights instruments, including CEDAW (Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women), ICPD (International Conference on Population and Development), and the Beijing Platform for Action.

- The purpose of the Association shall be to act as a strategic platform for NGOs engaged with the UN in their advocacy and lobbying actions for the respect of States' commitments and the maintenance of a global momentum for the defense of women and girls rights and the promotion of gender equality.
- To engage with the UN system to raise awareness on issues relating to the status of women.
- To influence global policy and monitor the implementation of existing commitments.
- To maintain a global momentum for gender equality through advocacy and strategic lobbying.
- To exchange information among Committee Members' Organizations and provide a platform for strategizing.
- To bring diverse voices from local and national levels to international platforms, to draw on the experience of Committee Members to share analysis on trends and good practices.
